We know how challenging it can be to get the word out about the wonderful services, packages and offerings lodging facilities, restaurants, and theaters have to offer to the general public. If only they could find out about you, Life would be much easier, right?

We are here to help. Our goal is to serve as a national (and eventually international) clearinghouse for those lodging, dining and theater facilities that offer this unique brand of entertainment. In addition to that sector of the murder mystery genre, we promote those industries which directly service those facilities such as the producers of murder mystery scripts, themes, books, games, costumes, and decorations. We strive to keep the murder mystery genre on the forefront of people's minds when it comes to exciting, fun-filled things to do with friends, families and colleagues.

To that end, our goal is to actively engage, develop relationships with and cater to our subscribers via e-mail newsletters, promotions, targeted SEO management, active involvement in various Google+ Communities and Yahoo! Mystery groups, and Facebook visibility. As time progresses we will venture forth to the national tradeshow and conventions that focus on the murder mystery genre... promoting all our loyal sponsors.

The following sponsor packages offer escalating features; allowing you to determine the level and need to best suit your business. Join with us as we work diligently towards developing a thriving murder mystery community of fun-loving enthusiasts!
